[The screen fades from black to a dark blue night sky with two stars twinkling. We now go down from the clouds to a castle with fireworks booming. A little flying twinkling thing, most likely Tinker Bell flies over the castle. The word "Disney" appears from twinkling dots. Suddenly a star from the sky shines so bright leaving the castle and taking us to a boat, almost exactly like the castle ...

While most of the show was scripted, the Genie's dialogue often changed to reflect current events in the news and popular culture. The musical replaced the venue's previous show, The Power of Blast, which played from 2001 to 2002. Alan Menken composed and wrote lyrics for a new song for this production, called "To Be Free".
