Firewing (Silverwing, #3) by Kenneth Oppel

Kenneth Oppel is the author of numerous books for young readers. His award-winning Silverwing trilogy has sold over a million copies worldwide and been adapted as an animated TV series and stage play.

Firewing (Silverwing Series #3) by Kenneth Oppel...

Firewing continues the saga of the Silverwing colony, focusing on Griffin, son of the hero in its prequels, Shade. At first glance he'd almost seem like the opposite of his father, a trait made worse considering everyone else in the colony continually reminds him of the feats his father did (likely without knowing Shade was a loner at first, too).

Oppel has created a new cast of bats, Griffin and Luna, to join the old favourites, Shade Silverwing and Marina Brightwing, and has developed Griffin as a character markedly different from Griffin's father, Shade. Oppel has also created a unique Underworld, drawn in part from classical mythology, but distinctly his own.

Silverwing | Kenneth Oppel During a storm, Shade is swept out over the ocean -- away from his family, his friends, and the only life he has ever known. Shade is a young Silverwing bat, the runt of his colony..... determined to prove himself on the long and dangerous winter migration to Hibernaculum, millions of wingbeats to the south.

Silverwing | Kenneth Oppel

Oppel's Silverwing trilogy has taken a little time to grow but is now one of the most interesting around, especially for boys of 9-11. The runty hero Shade has now become a father himself and is about to meet his young son Griffin - a boy bat who, ironically, feels himself hopelessly inferior to his heroic parents.

Sunwing, by Kenneth Oppel, was the adventure of a silverwing bat named Shade. Shade was the runt of his colony, and had a best friend named Miressa. In this book, Shade travels across the harsh earth to find his father who left the colony before Shade could remember him. There was a problem though: owls and cannibal bats.
